Cape Byron Rudolf Steiner School

High School Bursary for Current Students Policy

Policy:

Cape Byron Rudolf Steiner School will, dependent on budgetary requirements, offer a limited number of bursaries to support students who are achieving at a high level and/or bringing a strong positive influence to the school, but whose family financial circumstances might prevent them from remaining at the school.

Criteria:

Recipients must have:

- Demonstrated financial difficulty
- Demonstrated individual/family commitment to the ethos of the school.

Recipients must have either:

- Demonstrated high achievement in one or more academic areas
- Demonstrated leadership skills and experiences
- Demonstrated excellent commitment to studies

Term of Bursary:

Each bursary runs for a period of 1 year with an opportunity for review and possible extension of 1 additional year. The bursary covers up to 100% of Cape Byron Rudolf Steiner School tuition fees. Additional costs such as insurance, materials, music, distance education etc. are not included.

Conditions of maintenance of Bursary:

Should any of the following situations arise, Cape Byron Rudolf Steiner School reserves the right to withdraw bursary support:

- Cessation of enrolment;
- Material and sustained deterioration in the academic performance of the awardee;
- Ongoing, unresolvable disciplinary issues arising
- Failure to pay additional costs such as insurance, materials, music, distance education etc.

*Note that the Bursary program differs from the Community Fee Assistance Fund (CFAF) in that CFAF is a short-term fee assistance program based purely on financial hardship. Document Control
